EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Independent claims 1 and 13 are allowable at least because the prior art of record does not disclose or reasonably suggest dual access storage means for buffering of data, where execution of speech recognition is stopped when data in a dual access storage means falls below a predefined threshold level, and triggering execution of speech recognition when the dual access storage means is refilled to a level above the threshold level. It is known to place a buffer between a front-end preprocessor and a speech recognition back end, as taught by Figure 2 of Rees. However, the prior art of record does disclose or reasonably suggest a dual access buffer that stops execution of speech recognition when data in a dual access buffer falls below a threshold. Applicant's Specification, Page 4, Line 10 to Page 5, Line 2, suggests objectives of optimizing performance of speech recognition by avoiding peak processing demand and bottlenecks, reducing overall power consumptions to enable handheld devices to perform for an extended period on a single battery charge, and realizing a cost advantage by using a lower cost processor with reduced power and cooling requirements.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
